@ualocal7

Dear Members,

As we impliment the NYS mandated preventative measures about the recent pandemic of COVID-19, I write to let you know that Local 7 will continue to strive to be a stable resource for our members & their families. With that, Union Hall is closed to all public interaction and has made scheduling changes in order to protect our members, business relations, and community. Please know that all listed below is subject to change at a moments notice as our country progresses through this pandemic. I ask for your added patience with our Union Hall office staff as they continue to diligently conduct business for your support. Vital notification of any changes will be presented on our website and social media. All officers (Frank, Marc & myself) are always reachable on our mobile number for your concerns. Local 7 has endured many hardships over the past 125 years but has always pulled through; we will continue to do so! Stay strong & healthy -Ed Nadeau
